

Self Determination – the ability for the Palestinians to form their own state (country)

Right of Return – the ability for Palestinian refugees to be allowed to return to cities and towns within Israel where they used to live

Judea & Samaria – the historical name for the place called the West Bank

State – another way of saying “country”

One State Solution – a plan that would settle the conflict by agreeing on there being one country where the Jewish Israelis and Muslim Palestinians will live together

Two State Solution – a plan that would settle the conflict by creating two countries: one for the Israelis and one for the Palestinians